

Books For Sale at the Archives

The Clay County Archives Center, a service of Clerk of Court Tara S. Green, offers several books for sale. The proceeds support curation activities and educational outreach programs in our community.

We encourage you to visit Archives M-F, 8am-5pm. Call us (904) 371-0027.

Images of Orange Park by Cindy Cheatwood. Cindy is a master history teacher in Orange Park and her book is filled with photos of Orange Park from its founding to present times. Many accurately reported historical facts accompany the pictures. Many of the pictures in the book came from the Archives.

$20

Images of Clay County by Kevin Hooper. Kevin is a former member of the Clay Preservation Board. 127 pages of vintage images of Clay County. Lots of history in this one. Many Archives photos in this book.

$15

Images of Green Cove Springs by Kevin Hooper. Kevin is a former member of the Clay Preservation Board. 126 pages of vintage images of Green Cove Springs in this book.

$15

Cracker Gothic A Memoir Wanda Suttle Duncan. Wanda, grew up in Green Cove Springs and this is her story of her return and her relationship with her elderly mother. Truly touching, sometimes funny, sometimes introspective. A good read.

$12

The Early History of Clay County: A Wilderness that Could be Tamed by Kevin Hooper. The definitive history of Clay County from Timucua occupation to the Civil War. Extensively researched at the National Archives, the Clay County Archives and the British Archives.

$20

Who's Who Politically Speaking in Clay County 1858-1986 & 1987-1994. Want to know who the Sheriff was in 1894 ? How about the County Judge in 1958 ? These are the books for you .

$5 each

Florida Clerks Their History and Experiences – History of the establishment of Clerks of the Courts in Florida.

$10

We maintain an Archives Reading Room with hundreds of books/binders related to the history of Clay County. They are available for reading at the Archives at no charge. The collection includes biographies, diaries, histories of war, church histories, family histories, African American history and copies of rare materials from other archives and libraries.