

Fifth Annual

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

5PM - 8PM

RIPPED FROM THE HEADLINES

FRIDAY

OCTOBER 10, 2025

THE CLERK OF COURT'S ARCHIVES CENTER & CLAY COUNTY DISTRICT SCHOOLS PRESENT

TALES FROM THE CLINK

Now in this event's 5th year, Tales from the Clink actors will present more chills and thrills than ever. Join us!

Our Historical Archives staff dug deep into their files to find old true crime stories that make everyone ask, "What was life really like here 100 years ago?" Amazing RHS Drama students bring those stories to life for one night only, so don't miss out! Not to mention access to the Clay County History Museum (included), their pumpkin-related games and other fun activities provided by Clay Parks & Rec, County Library, VIA and more!

Free parking in open lots and along streets near Historic Triangle site (area of 915 Walnut St., 21 Gratio Place.)

SCAVENGER HUNT

MURDER TRIAL

Attended by Hundreds

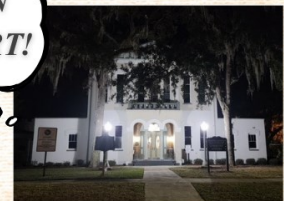

The Trial of the Sweetheart Slayer attracts a standing room only crowd, so show up early to get your seat upstairs!

5:45pm & 6:45pm

1890 Courthouse 2nd Floor

Life or Death Decision

What will the jury decide? Will the punishment fit the horrible crime?

AT THE COUNTY'S HISTORIC TRIANGLE AT 21 GRATIO PLACE IN GREEN COVE SPRINGS, MEET "CHARACTERS" IN THE JAIL, COURTHOUSE, MUSEUM, RAILROAD DEPOT, AND MORE!

Treats, Eats, Drinks

Parched? We've got affordable drinks, pizza, and sweet treats for your family. Hang around a while!

Slightly spooky family fun!

Event recommended for adults and children 8+ (parent's discretion). (904) 371-0027 for more info.

Talk About DRAMA!

Student actors take center stage in the courtroom, in the Old Jail cells, in the courtyard...everywhere!

