IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR CLAY COUNTY, FLORIDA

VINCENT KEITH BROWN II,
Petitioner,

Case No.: 2026 DR 618
Division: I v.

MORGAN LEE JAMES,
Respondent.

ORDER GRANTING PETITIONER'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO REDACT RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS FROM PETITIONER'S DRIVER'S LICENSE

THIS CAUSE came before the Court upon Petitioner's Motion to Redact Residential Address from Petitioner's Driver's License. The Court, having reviewed the Motion, noting that the requested relief is unopposed, and being otherwise fully advised, finds:

1. This is a paternity proceeding involving Petitioner, VINCENT KEITH BROWN II, and Respondent, MORGAN LEE JAMES.
2. Petitioner is a law enforcement officer entitled to the statutory protection afforded to residential addresses of qualifying law enforcement personnel under section 119.071(4)(d)2.a., Florida Statutes.
3. On September 24, 2026, Petitioner filed a Notice of Filing Petitioner's Driver's License Containing Confidential Information, Filing No. 257771331.
4. Petitioner's residential address appears on the driver's license reproduced on page two of that filing.
5. Section 119.071(4)(d)2.a., Florida Statutes, establishes a statutory exemption protecting the residential addresses of qualifying law enforcement personnel from public disclosure.
6. Pursuant to Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(c)(9)(A)(vii), protecting Petitioner's residential address is necessary to comply with the public policy established by the Florida Legislature.
7. The Court finds that the residential address appearing on Petitioner's driver's license is confidential and should be redacted from the publicly accessible court record.
8. The Court further finds that:

   a. The requested redaction is limited to Petitioner's residential address appearing on page two of Filing No. 257771331.

   b. Neither party's name is determined confidential.

   c. The progress docket and the remainder of the court record shall remain publicly accessible.

   d. The degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality ordered are no broader than necessary to protect the identified statutory interest.

e. No less restrictive measure is available that would adequately protect Petitioner's residential address from public disclosure.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. Petitioner's Motion to Redact Residential Address from Petitioner's Driver's License is GRANTED.
2. The Clay County Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to redact Petitioner's residential address appearing on the driver's license reproduced on page two of the Notice of Filing, Filing No. 257771331, filed September 24, 2026.
3. The Clerk shall ensure that Petitioner's residential address is not visible or otherwise accessible to the public through the Court's electronic records system or through publicly available copies of the identified filing.
4. The Clerk shall maintain the unredacted original in a manner that protects the confidential residential address from public disclosure. Access to the unredacted information shall be limited to the Court, authorized court personnel, the parties and their counsel as permitted by law, and any other person authorized by further order of the Court.
5. Pending completion of the redaction, the Clerk shall restrict public access to the unredacted page containing Petitioner's residential address.
6. No other information appearing on Petitioner's driver's license is determined confidential by this Order.
7. The remainder of the filing and the court record shall remain publicly accessible, except as otherwise provided by law or court order.
8. The Clerk shall provide public notice of this Order in accordance with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(e)(5).

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Green Cove Springs, Clay County, Florida, on November 16, 2026.
